Ami E

Ami

1. The wind is a-whipping through the open door speaking of the sea and the rolling waves

C

Maybe there's a ship at the bottom now or struggling on the surface with a cry for help

Dmi

Wish I could forget and let the years go by

E

Ami

wish I could escape from my dreams of you

Ami

Twenty years ago was a howling storm like the voice of a god from the great beyond

I was standing on the shore as the sky grew dark with a hand on a bible and a hand on my heart

Dmi

Wish I could forget and let the years go by

Ami

wish I could escape from my dreams of you

- R. Because all I have left is the voice of the wind
F G Ami
blowing through the doors of our house!

Ami

2. The sun was drying up the rain in our sky Shining gold in our sails and our hearts standing by

Remember what they're singing on their way to the sea:
„Goodbye fare thee well, goodbye for me“

Dmi

Wish I could forget and let the years go by

Ami

Wish I could escape from my dreams of you

Ami

Empty were the coffins and the house where we lived as the grave that I dug by our place on the beach

How I wish the water could be poured out of the sea

so I can go and get you back ashore with me

Dmi

Wish I could forget and let the years go by

Ami

Wish I could escape from my dreams of you
